Incident: 2013-03668

Just before 7:00am on the morning of March 22, 2013, Pasadena Police responded to a call from an adult female who stated that she had been kidnapped, beaten and stabbed.

When officers arrived on scene, they determined that the victim had been at the Conoco service station in the 800 block of Queens Road about 7:00pm the night before where she was approached by an adult Hispanic male. The suspect reportedly forced her to accompany him across the street to a vacant warehouse where he is reported to have attempted to sexually assault her. She resisted and was beaten, stabbed, and suffered a throat laceration. The suspect fled the building where the victim remained until she gained the strength to make her way back to the Conoco store for help.

Pasadena Police arranged for a Crime Stoppers broadcast featuring an image of the assailant that was obtained from a surveillance camera at the Conoco facility. That broadcast resulted in a Crime Stoppers tip that led to the suspect’s whereabouts. He was arrested by Pasadena Police at the residence of a relative on Limestone Street in Houston at approximately 2:00am 3-27-13 on an unrelated charge. Charges stemming from the Queens Road attack are pending.
