Pasadena officers responded to a call from the Walmart store located at 5200 Fairmont Parkway in Pasadena just before 5:00 am on the morning of January 28th. While walking thru the store, the on duty store manager had discovered that the door to the cabinet that contains Apple products was ajar. He noticed a crack at the bottom of the case where it had been broken into.

He notified store security and reviewed the store video. The video shows 2 males entering the store. They went directly to the Apple display case. They opened the case and began removing Apple I-Pod Touches. They concealed the items under their clothing and exited to store without attempting to pay for the items.

Suspect #1 – Black Male, 22-30 years of age. He was wearing a White and Black hat, Black Polo Shirt, and Dark colored jeans.

Suspect #2 – White Male 22-30 years of age. He was wearing a black shirt and khaki shorts.

Anyone with any information regarding the identity of suspects in this case is asked to call the Pasadena Police Department at 713-477-1221; or, call Crime Stoppers at 713-222-TIPS (8477). All callers will remain anonymous; and, if any Crime Stoppers information leads to an arrest or the filing of felony charges, the tipster will be eligible for up to a $5000 cash reward.
